CHARNEY INCLOSURE.

THE Commissioners appointed in and by a certain Act of Parliament, intituled, "An Act for Inclosing Lands, in the Township or Hamlet of Charney in the Parish of Longworth, in the County of Berks", Do hereby give Notice, That they have set out the following public Roads and Ways and Foot Paths through and over the Lands and Grounds, by the said Act directed to be inclosed, that is to say

One public Road, of the Breadth of thirty Feet, leading out of the Severals, at Pack Gate, and extending Across the Little East Field, nearly in its present Track into the Liberty of Lyford, and called Lyford Way.

One other public Road, of the Breadth of forty Feet, leading from the Village of Charney, in its present Track into the Liberty of Hinton, at Grove Mead Stream, and called Sheepphouse Field Way.

One other public Road, of the like Breadth of forty Feet, leading from the Village of Charney, in its present Track of Ganfield Gate, and called Faringdon Way.

One public Bridle Road and Foot Path, of the Breadth of twelve Feet, leading out of Faringdon Way, at Butt Lane End, in its present Track into the Liberty of Pusey, and called Pusey Way.

One other public Bridle Road and Foot Way, of the like Breadth of twelve Feet, leading out of the Village of Charney, near Nighat Gate, in a westwardly Direction on the North Side of Nighat Hedge into the Cow Common, and extending from thence its present Track into the Liberty of Stanford, and called Stanford Way.

One public Foot Path, of the Breadth of six Feet, leading from the Village of Charney, at Tomkins's Gap, in its present Track into Grove Mead, and called Longworth Path.

One other public Foot Path, of the like Breadth of six Feet, leading from the Village of Charney, at Tomkins's Gap, in its present Track into the Liberty of Longworth, at Red Mead Stile, and called Abingdon Path.

And one other Foot Path, of the like Breadth of six Feet, leading from the Village of Charney, at Nighat Stile, across Nighat Common, in its present Track into an old Inclosure in Charney called the Pens, and called Goosey Path.

And the said Commissioners do also give further Notice, That a Map, in which the said Roads and Ways are accurately laid down and described, and signed by them, is deposited with Mr. Wm. Crowdy, of Highworth, and Mr. Pinder of Wantage, for the Inspection of all Persons concerned; and that all Persons who may think themselves injured or aggrieved by the setting out of such Roads and Ways, may state their Objections to the said Commissioners at a Meeting to be held at the Bear Inn, in Wantage, on Tuesday the 21st Day of August next, at Eleven o'clock in the Forenoon. Dated the 25th Day of July, 1804.

By Order of the Commissioners,

WM, C[R]OWDY, Clerk.
